In a pond at San Anton lives a boastful frog. He is always telling his friends that he can do very special things. He sits on his log and tells them stories. One day he told them that he hopped over the sun and raced a shark and won. The frog told them that he dived to the ocean bed and with his croak a lion stopped roaring. His friends asked him to show them how he jumped over the sun but the frog was tired and went to sleep.

Now answer these questions on your copybook.

1. Where does the frog live?
2. Where does the frog sit?
3. Over what did he hope one day?
4. Who won the race?
5. How did the frog stop a lion roaring?
6. Why did the frog go to sleep?
